Recommendation Letter

30-04-2024

I am writing to highly endorse Divax Shah, who reported to me during his internship as AI and Data Science Intern at DMI Finance from January 15, 2024, to April 30, 2024.

Throughout his tenure, Divax consistently showcased a remarkable ability to grasp new technologies and adapt to them. His work in generative AI, combined with his knowledge of containerized applications and Large Language Models, significantly contributed to the progress of our team's projects. In addition to his technical skills, Divax's positive attitude and friendly nature was a great fit for our work culture.

He consistently practiced collaboration and teamwork, making him an important member of our team. Based on his exceptional performance and character, I wholeheartedly recommend Divax Shah for any role he may pursue. His commitment, professionalism, and eagerness to learn make him an invaluable asset to any organization.
